

Annatoria - Be Still Lyrics

LYRICS

My eyes on you
I wanna reach out over you
Know you're feeling hollow
Hide in my shadow
Hear love calling
Waiting to hold you
I'll cover your hurting
(Cover your hurting)

And I don't care if you
Don't feel brand new
I'm here to fill a void in you
Fill a void

No matter what you go through
I am still God
No matter what you go through
Falling deeper
Be still, be still, be still
I am still God

Be still, be still, be still
I am still God

From my point of view
Living all burnt up
Ain't what I had in store for you
When you get lost in a world
Come back to me
And I'll t-take all your burdens
Your burdens

And I don't care if you
Don't feel brand new
I'm here to fill a void in you
Fill a void
Oh cast out your cares on me
And then I'll exchange them for you

No matter what you go through
I am still God

(Yeah)

No matter what you go through
Falling deeper

(Deeper, I'm here for you my baby)

Be still, be still, be still
I am still God

Be still, be still, be still

I am still God

No matter what you go through

I am still God

No matter what you go through

I am still God

Baby be still, be still

I am still God

Be still

I am still God
